Inhalt / Qualifikationsziele	The year 2017 marks 50 years of ongoing Israeli rule over territories captured in the Six Day War. Based on primary sources (in Hebrew) and secondary sources from the research literature (in English), the MA seminar offers a theory-guided overview over key aspects of Israel's occupation, including the organization of military rule, the history of the settlement project, Palestinian nationalism and the Palestinian proto-state, the rise and decline of the peace process and the effects of long-term military occupation on Palestinian as well as Israeli society. Guest listeners are permitted to attend the seminar, but an advanced knowledge of Hebrew is required in order to participate in the class (at least two years). Please register in advance by contacting the lecturer (johannes.becke@hfjs.eu).
